Re: Administration of the Nobili Trust

Dear Steven:

We represent Craig M. Nobili as trustee in the administration of The Nobili Trust, (the "Trust"), on Roland Nobili's death. The Trust is now irrevocable. Enclosed please find a notification which is required to be sent to you under California law. You are named as a beneficiary of the trust.

I enclose a copy of the following documents for your records:

- (1) The Nobili Trust, dated May 24, 1995;
- (2) The First Amendment of the Trust, dated October 11, 2000;
- (3) The Second Amendment of the Trust, dated May 29, 2015;
- (4) The Third Amendment of the Trust, dated March 27, 2018; and
- (5) Roland Nobili's Last Will and Testament, dated May 29, 2015.

Our firm represented Roland Nobili and Elizabeth A. Nobili with respect to their estate planning and now represents Craig M. Nobili as trustee of the Trust. We do not represent you as beneficiary. You may wish to retain your own counsel.

Very truly yours;

WAIVER OF RIGHT TO BRING ACTION TO CONTEST THE TRUST

I, the undersigned, hereby acknowledge that I received Notice of the Administration of THE Nobili TRUST, dated _____, (the "Trust") as required under California Probate Code Section 16061.7. I was provided with the Notice because I am a [beneficiary/heir] under said Trust and the Trust is now irrevocable. The Trust became irrevocable upon the death of Roland Nobili on _____. I further acknowledge that under California Probate Code Section 16061.7 that I have the later of the following events to bring an action to contest the trust:

- (1) On or within 120 days after service of the Probate Code Section 16061.7 Notice; or
- (2) If during that 120 period, 60 days from the date on which a copy of the terms of the trust is delivered to you.

[OPTIONAL (Most situations this should be removed)] I further acknowledge that California Probate Code Section 21310 defines a "direct contest" as a contest that alleges the invalidity of a protected instrument or one or more of its terms, based on one or more of the following grounds:

- (1) Forgery.
- (2) Lack of due execution.
- (3) Lack of capacity.
- (4) Menace, duress, fraud, or undue influence.
- (5) Revocation of a will pursuant to Section 6120, revocation of a trust pursuant to Section 15401, or revocation of an instrument other than a will or trust pursuant to the procedure for revocation that is provided by statute or by the instrument.
- (6) Disqualification of a beneficiary under Section 6112, 21350, or 21380.

In order to expedite distribution from this Trust, I hereby expressly and voluntarily waive my right to bring an action to contest the Trust as provided by California Probate Code Section 16061.7.

I hereby acknowledge that I am signing this waiver voluntarily and that I have been informed of my legal rights. I have been informed that I have the right to seek my own separate and independent legal counsel.
